Keynote speaker: Dr. Iur. Habil. Marek Jan Wasiński
Associate Professor, University of Łódź

Dr. Marek Jan Wasiński holds the position of Associate Professor at the University of Lodz. His academic interests cover a broad spectrum, including various theoretical and non-mainstream approaches to international law, an in-depth exploration of Eastern Europe as a distinct liminal and post-imperial space, and the examination of international human rights protection, specifically within the African context. Dr. Wasiński is a Visiting Professor at the Institute for European Studies of Ivane Javakhishvili Tbilisi State University in Georgia. He has also lectured at Kenyatta University in Nairobi, Kenya, and the Universidad de Granada in Spain. Furthermore, he is an external examiner at the North-West University in RSA. He has contributed his expertise as a rapporteur for International Organizations (OXIO) at Oxford University Press and worked with the Comissão de Justiça e Paz e Integridade da Criação from 2014 to 2015. He also provides legal expertise regarding the law of Sub-Saharan states before Polish courts. From 2015 to 2017, Dr. Wasiński contributed to a series of 73 episodes for Polish Radio 3, aimed at promoting broader understanding of international law. Since 2024, he has been conducting a scientific project titled “Eastern Europe as a Distinct Post-Imperial and Liminal Space within the International Legal Order,” funded by an Interdisciplinary Research Grant under the "Excellence Initiative – Research University program.
